

For international entrepreneurs,
starting a business just got easier.

IN2NYC

International Innovators

The International Innovators Initiative (IN2NYC) enables international entrepreneurs to build their businesses in NYC by connecting entrepreneurs with the partners and resources to qualify for cap-exempt H-1B visas.

HOW DOES IN2NYC WORK?

- Entrepreneurs selected through a competitive process will be matched with one of seven partner City University of New York (CUNY) schools.
- Entrepreneurs and schools will form collaborative partnerships, enabling entrepreneurs to qualify for cap-exempt H-1B visas.
- Entrepreneurs will utilize their expertise to contribute to school communities and further school missions.
- Schools will lease co-working space to entrepreneurs, providing access to office amenities, support services, and technical equipment.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

- International entrepreneurs who have started a business overseas and would like to relocate or expand to NYC.
- International entrepreneurs currently based in the United States who have started a business but whose appropriate immigration status is expiring.
- International students graduating from U.S. universities or Optional Practical Training programs who have started their own businesses.

Visit www.in2.nyc to learn more.

CUNY The City University of
New York

NYCEDC
New York City Economic Development Corporation